

The Body Worn Video Steering Group inaugural meeting January 29th 2013

A community for people interested in the field of Body Worn Video that aims to provide:

- Expert advice
- Practical help and “how to” guides
- A forum for debate
- Promotion of the use of Body Worn Video
- Centralized information resource
- A vision for the future

Agenda

| Morning | Afternoon |
|--|--|
| 9 – 10am Welcome tea and coffee | 12.30pm – 1.30pm Networking lunch |
| 10 – 11.15am Session one: How to get Body Worn Video into your organisation including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Introduction by Chief Superintendent Jones • Selling the concept to your organization • Choosing the equipment – the right camera, the right evidence management, the right company to partner with. • Building your team • Finding funds How to get through the procurement process: Presentation by Martin Nel (Hants and TVP) | 1.30pm – 2pm Session two: Getting the tech bit sorted Technical Solutions with Sam Mullahy (Sussex Police) |
| | 1.30pm – 2pm Session two: Getting the tech bit sorted Technical Solutions with Sam Mullahy (Sussex Police) Q&A: |
| | 2pm – 2.20pm Afternoon tea |
| | 2.20pm – 2.50pm Session three: The future – current trends and where is this going? Usage is growing enormously Project Hyperion – personal issue for every officer on the Isle of White by Steve Goodier (Hants) Panel discussion and closing Q&A: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What don’t we understand about BWV? • What do we need to improve? • Where do we need to get to? |
| 11.15 – 11.45am Networking with tea and coffee | |
| 11.45am – 12.30pm Session two: Preparations for using the equipment Policy and procedures with Warren Franklin (Sussex Police): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Working with your organisation (awareness, training etc) • Preparing the public • Working with other agencies (CPS, PCC, Courts etc) | |
| Q&A: | 2.50pm - Roundup and close |
| | Optional discussion and in depth look at Reveal Media’s technology |